SOME WORK NEEDED, TOO.

A minister of a fashionable church in Newark had always left the greeting of strangers to be attended to by the ushers until he read the newspaper articles in reference to the matter.

"Suppose a representative should visit our church," said his wife. "Wouldn't it ne awful?"

"It would," the minister admitted. The following Sunday evening he noticed a plainly dressed woman in one of the free pews. She sat alone and was clearly not a member of the flock. After the benediction the minister hastened and intercepted her at the door.
